

Construction, Property, Asset Security, Corrections and Local Government Toolboxes

Correctional Services

Correctional Services - Working with clients with complex needs 701

Develops the skills of corrections staff who manage and supervise offenders with complex needs in the context of case management and risk management principles.

National Public Services

Developing People in Government 514

Government employees in supervisory positions can gain competencies that will contribute to a Certificate IV. Supervisory and human resources skills emphasis.

General Construction

Building and Construction 401

Seven competencies provide a basic introduction to the specific trade. The eighth competency relates to workplace communication and is relevant to all trades.

Asset Security

On Your Guard 501

The Certificate II in Security Operations qualification is the entry level that meets the national licensing requirements in the guarding industry. This Toolbox covers 21 units.

Security and Risk Management 502

This Toolbox is aimed at people currently working or wanting to work in a middle management role in organisations delivering security and risk management services.

Property Development and Mangement

Virtual Realty 513

Learners may be seeking formal training to meet the educational requirements for the real estate sales agent licensing process, or specialised training for upskilling.

Local Government

Local Government 310

In this Toolbox, 17 units of competency are addressed through three streams: the Community stream, the Administration stream and the Governance stream.

Learning about Native Title 423

For Indigenous learners and employees of local government, native title representative bodies, or non-government agencies involved in native title matters.

Public Safety 903

For those working in the community safety industry and with organisations having identified community safety issues, eg State Emergency Services, Local Councils.